

Member Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct

North Bay Curling and Athletic Corporation follows the rules and regulations set out by the Ontario Tennis Association regarding member conduct. Members and guests will conduct themselves on the premises (or when representing North Bay Curling and Athletic Corporation on a team or at a tournament at another venue) in a courteous and responsible manner. Members and their guests should be able to enjoy the game of tennis as a player or as a spectator in a harassment-free environment.

Members and their guests will refrain from violent, threatening, abusive language or behaviour toward other members, guests, and the North Bay Curling and Athletic Corporation staff. Abuse may be perpetrated by an adult or a child, and the victim may be an adult or a child. (See North Bay Curling and Athletic Corporation Harassment Policy)

The North Bay Curling and Athletic Corporation staff and members of the Board of Directors are tasked with ensuring that members and their guests comply with the rules. Members or guests who do not adhere to the rules will be asked to leave the court, may be warned of their breach, may be excluded from participating in some club activities, including club teams, tournaments, and social events, and may have their membership suspended or cancelled. Furthermore, the Ontario Tennis Association may enforce discipline against a member who breaches the Ontario Tennis Association Code of Conduct, particularly if the infraction occurs during an Ontario Tennis Association-sanctioned event.

Complaint / Incident Reporting Process

In the event of a breach of member code of conduct, members or guests involved should provide a written report within five days outlining the time, date, place, specific nature of the actions and person(s) in breach to the General Manager as soon as is practical after the incident. Verbal reports to any North Bay Curling and Athletic Corporation staff of such incidents are acceptable and must be followed by report in writing within five days of the incident. The General Manager, along with the Board of Directors, or a Member Conduct Committee approved by the Board (will discuss disciplinary decisions (e.g., warnings, exclusions, suspensions, and cancellations of membership). Members of the Board of Directors, or a Board-appointed Member Conduct Committee, will review the history of written reports involving a specific member when arriving at a disciplinary decision, particularly if a member has a history of breaches of the Code of Conduct.

Any complaint should be made as soon as possible after the incident while the details are still fresh in the individuals mind, and should include the following information:

- Your name, phone number, email address
- Date and time of incident

Version: 0

Approval Date: March 17, 2021

- Names of any witnesses
- Name of offender(s)
- Full details of the incident including what led up to the incident, who was involved and the outcome
- Date incident report is being submitted

Appeals

Members have a right to appeal a disciplinary decision of the Board (or Board-appointed Member Conduct Committee) in writing to the attention of the President no later than fifteen days from the date of decision. Members who request an appeal will appear before the Board of Directors within a month of the written appeal, for a review of the disciplinary decision.

Revision Log

Version	Date	Changes
0	March 17, 2021	Initial document.

Approval

Date: _____

Name: _____

Signature: Natasha Gibson

Position: _____

Date: March 17, 2021

Name: Mackenzie Daley

Signature: M Daley

Position: Secretary